

My Anger Buttons

A collection of ten blank, circular buttons arranged in three rows. Each button has a white center, a thin green inner border, and a silver outer rim. The buttons are intended for users to write down things that make them angry.

Fill in each button with something that makes you angry. These are the things or situations that 'push your buttons'